

The Duttons: Who's Who

Dean Dutton (AKA Dad): Dean is CFO for The Duttons and the rhythm guitar player. A former professor of economics, Dean is the financial brain behinds The Duttons

Sheila Dutton (AKA Mom): Sheila is the CEO for The Duttons and the bassist. She is the “Big picture” person behind The Duttons and it is her vision that has kept things going! Dean and Sheila have 7 biological children (4 of which currently perform on stage with the show) and 7 adopted children.

Timothy Dutton: Tim is the eldest son of the performing Duttons. He plays all the instruments on stage, but his favorites are electric guitar and mandolin. He is also an accomplished video and sound engineer as well as the “CEO in Training” for the Dutton businesses. Tim and his wife Judith are co-managers of the Dutton Family Theater in Branson, Missouri. Judith also plays piano and sings in the show. Tim and Judith’s children: Jessica, Rachel and Timmy are a big part of the show where they sing, dance and play a variety of instruments - just like their Dad!

Amy Dutton Arambulo: Amy is the main violinist in the show. Besides being blessing with perfect pitch and an amazing singing voice, she is also the show manager and director. She and her husband Rudy (an attorney in Branson) have four children. All four of Amy and Rudy’s boys (Gabriel, Julian, Damian and Josiah) are studying violin and piano and lately Julian has taken an interest in the harmonica. The youngest Josiah, recently completed 3 and half years of treatment through St. Jude Children’s Hospital for leukemia and we are very happy to say is now cancer free!

Jonathan Dutton: Jonathan is the main bassist in the family, but he also excels on banjo and guitar. Jon is the technical manager of both theaters and works hard at making sure the equipment is working correctly and everything is running smoothly. He is also the “CFO in Training” for The Duttons. Jon and his wife Bella, who is from the beautiful islands of Samoa, are the managers of the Dutton Inn. Bella is also an accomplished Polynesian Dancer, a talent that she is passing on to their children. Jonathan and Bella’s four children, Natalia, Selena, Nathaniel and Leila are studying violin, piano and ukulele in addition to dance.

Abigail Dutton Wright plays banjo and violin . She is the proprietor of the Dutton Gift Shops (the main one is called “Abby’s Tourist Trap.”) Her husband Adam is a personal trainer and manages the largest gym in Branson at the RecPlex. Their four children are Grace, Seth, Orson and Marcus. They are taking piano lessons and are very involved with sports. Grace is also very involved with dance lessons. Abigail nobly stays in Branson and suffers through the cold winter weather there to watch over things while the rest of the family moves the show to the Arizona sunshine from December to the end of March.
